

National Park, Sunday, September 25--2:30 p. m.

DESLOGE vs. FREDERICKTOWN

Desloge defeated Fredericktown 1 to 0 Labor Day. This will be an exciting one. Admission 35 cents.

MUSIC BY THE DESLOGE COMMUNITY BAND

Local Happenings

Timothy seed at Klein's.
Red Top seed at Klein's.
The best Alfalfa seed we can buy—at Klein's.

Guarantee Tablets at Klein's.
Fresh Fruit at Klein's—fine for school lunches.

Barrel and Sack Salt at Klein's.
New Sweet Potatoes at Klein's.
Tin cans, sealing wax and jar rubbers at Klein's.

Mrs. T. Brent has a new Ford touring car.

Miss Irene Crader, of Esther, spent yesterday in Farmington.

Walter Blomeyer entered the Ozark Business College Monday.

Capt. W. A. Kennedy was a St. Louis visitor the last of the week.

Miss Anna Roegner, of Elvins, spent Sunday with Miss Lucy Applegate.

Miss Etta Eastham was a business visitor in St. Louis Sunday and Monday.

Homer Smith left Sunday for Alton, Ill., where he hopes to secure employment.

J. F. Counts, who is working in St. Louis, spent Sunday here with his family.

Miss Willa Buck, of Columbia, Mo., is here visiting her friend, Mrs. E. M. Laakman.

T. W. Fitzpatrick returned Saturday from a few days business trip to Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Alice Patton, of Ironton, spent last week with her daughter, Miss Alice Patton.

Miss Mildred Hough has accepted a clerical position in the office of W. A. Brookshire.

Giles Waring left Sunday for a few days visit with St. Louis relatives and friends.

Dr. Perkins and Walter Cartee are attending Masonic Grand Lodge in St. Louis this week.

Dr. John Bailey, of Lexington, Ky., is here visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Bailey.

Mrs. G. B. Williams and daughter, Miss Nellie, of Flat River, were shopping here Saturday.

666 cases Malaria, Chills and Fever, Bilious Fever, Colds and LaGrippe, or money refunded.

We will buy your mules, cattle, sheep and hogs. W. B. Rariden & Son, Farmington, Mo.

Miss Hazel Counts won the prize on the kodak enlargement at the Davis Music Store this week.

Misses Laverta Collins and Bessie Boyd spent the week-end with Miss Collins' parents in Annapolis, Md.

Mrs. J. B. Robinson and little daughter left Saturday for a week's visit with her mother in Charleston, Mo.

Clifton Hume, of St. Louis, arrived in Farmington Tuesday for a week's visit with his aunt, Mrs. T. J. Clavin.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Grief and children and Miss Myrtle Conrad motored to Bonne Terre Sunday to witness a ball game.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rogers, of Esther, are spending the week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Rogers.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Dillard and George Herzog drove to Cape Girardeau Monday to attend the county fair at this place this week.

Mrs. Arnold Day left yesterday for Cape Girardeau to join her husband, who is employed there, and also to attend the Cape county fair.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hughes and children returned home the last of the week from Venedocia, Ohio, where they spent a week with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griffith, of DeSoto, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Francisco. Mr. Griffith is assistant State Highway Engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheets and children, Miss Ruth and Ray Lynn, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets and family in Doe Run.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman, of St. Louis, arrived here Monday and took her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robb Chapman, to the city to be operated on for cancer.

Misses Lena and Emma Karsch returned to St. Louis yesterday to continue their hospital work, in which they have been engaged for some time.

The splendid weather, consisting of warm days and cool nights, continue to run true to form. It is just the kind of weather that is needed to mature crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Girard Dover and daughter, of Sikeston, visited Farmington friends the first of the week. They left Wednesday in their car for Cape Girardeau.

M. L. Doughty and son, John, and wife, who arrived here last Friday with the remains of Mrs. M. L. Doughty, are still visiting relatives and many old friends in this community. The many acts of loving kindness and tender thoughtfulness performed by friends on their sad mission were served as a reminder to those former citizens that old friends are the best friends one accumulates in this life.

THE HOME MEAT MARKET

Is now splendidly equipped with refrigerating service and most expert meat handlers and cutters, so that customers are always guaranteed satisfaction when trading with us. We have cut out the last cent of surplus profit, as our prices will indicate.

Choice meats for 20 cents a pound.

Home Meat Market,
South Side Square, Farmington.

Jake Karch left Wednesday on a business trip to St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Prescott and children and Mrs. B. T. Prescott and niece, Miss Lola Whaley, left Monday for Cape Girardeau to attend the Cape county fair at that place.

Richard Adams, Jr., and family, who have been spending the past three weeks with relatives and friends here and in Ironton, returned the first of the week to their home in Horatio, Ark.

New classes will again be organized at the Chillicothe Business College Oct. 3rd so those wishing Business, Telegraph, Civil Service or Banking courses should arrange to enter then.

J. C. Ellison, of Hollister, Mo., was in Farmington yesterday to see his son, who is in State Hospital No. 4, where he has been for some time, having had a mental breakdown while in the army.

The Globe-Democrat of last Saturday printed a picture of Miss Alma Williams, who recently visited friends in the city enroute to Colorado Springs, Colo., where she went on an extended visit.

Miss Christine Counts, of this city, and Warren Belknap, of Bismarck, were united in marriage the last of the week in Ste. Genevieve. They will make their home in Ellington, where Warren is employed.

The College Band, Orchestra and Glee Clubs were organized at the Chillicothe Business College last week and the football squad under Coach Neel is hard at work each evening preparing for its heavy schedule.

Postmaster and Mrs. Norman J. Goeltz, of Bismarck, have just received a telegram from their son, Petty Officer Norman J. Goeltz, stating that he will surely arrive home from Philadelphia, Pa., by next Sunday, Sept. 25th. His many Farmington friends will be pleased to learn of his early return.

A delegation of six from Farmington and nineteen from St. Francois county attended the State meeting of the DeMolay in St. Louis last Friday, returning home Sunday. This is a comparatively new organization, being a juvenile auxiliary to the Masonic order. It was a great gathering in St. Louis, there being more than 1,000 from Kansas City alone, who came on a special train. The visitors report having had a grand time.

Information was received here Wednesday by B. F. Casteel of the death of his son, Tony, which occurred at a government hospital in Colorado Tuesday, of tuberculosis. Tony, who was in the over-seas service, was sent to Colorado for treatment after his return from the war. He had a wide acquaintance in this community, and his friends were just as numerous as his acquaintances. He was a most worthy young man, whose death will be deeply regretted. His mother was at his bedside when the end came.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the DeSoto Trust Company, successor to the People's Bank, held last Thursday, Mr. E. L. Cook, former cashier of the Bank of Ironton, was chosen as cashier of the new institution. In referring to Mr. Cook, the DeSoto Republican says: "Mr. Cook is not unknown in this community, and comes with the strongest recommendations both as a banker and a man. For a number of years he was cashier of the Bank of Ironton, from which he went to Flat River, taking charge of a larger bank there. From there he took a position as a state bank examiner under Bank Commissioner Hughes, which he has since held, and in which position he was eminently satisfactory to the banking department of the state. He is a practical banker, capable and a very excellent gentleman."

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hughes and children returned home the last of the week from Venedocia, Ohio, where they spent a week with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griffith, of DeSoto, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Francisco. Mr. Griffith is assistant State Highway Engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheets and children, Miss Ruth and Ray Lynn, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets and family in Doe Run.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman, of St. Louis, arrived here Monday and took her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robb Chapman, to the city to be operated on for cancer.

Misses Lena and Emma Karsch returned to St. Louis yesterday to continue their hospital work, in which they have been engaged for some time.

The splendid weather, consisting of warm days and cool nights, continue to run true to form. It is just the kind of weather that is needed to mature crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Girard Dover and daughter, of Sikeston, visited Farmington friends the first of the week. They left Wednesday in their car for Cape Girardeau.

M. L. Doughty and son, John, and wife, who arrived here last Friday with the remains of Mrs. M. L. Doughty, are still visiting relatives and many old friends in this community. The many acts of loving kindness and tender thoughtfulness performed by friends on their sad mission were served as a reminder to those former citizens that old friends are the best friends one accumulates in this life.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheets and children, Miss Ruth and Ray Lynn, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets and family in Doe Run.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman, of St. Louis, arrived here Monday and took her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robb Chapman, to the city to be operated on for cancer.

Misses Lena and Emma Karsch returned to St. Louis yesterday to continue their hospital work, in which they have been engaged for some time.

The splendid weather, consisting of warm days and cool nights, continue to run true to form. It is just the kind of weather that is needed to mature crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Girard Dover and daughter, of Sikeston, visited Farmington friends the first of the week. They left Wednesday in their car for Cape Girardeau.

M. L. Doughty and son, John, and wife, who arrived here last Friday with the remains of Mrs. M. L. Doughty, are still visiting relatives and many old friends in this community. The many acts of loving kindness and tender thoughtfulness performed by friends on their sad mission were served as a reminder to those former citizens that old friends are the best friends one accumulates in this life.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheets and children, Miss Ruth and Ray Lynn, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets and family in Doe Run.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman, of St. Louis, arrived here Monday and took her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robb Chapman, to the city to be operated on for cancer.

Misses Lena and Emma Karsch returned to St. Louis yesterday to continue their hospital work, in which they have been engaged for some time.

The splendid weather, consisting of warm days and cool nights, continue to run true to form. It is just the kind of weather that is needed to mature crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Girard Dover and daughter, of Sikeston, visited Farmington friends the first of the week. They left Wednesday in their car for Cape Girardeau.

M. L. Doughty and son, John, and wife, who arrived here last Friday with the remains of Mrs. M. L. Doughty, are still visiting relatives and many old friends in this community. The many acts of loving kindness and tender thoughtfulness performed by friends on their sad mission were served as a reminder to those former citizens that old friends are the best friends one accumulates in this life.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheets and children, Miss Ruth and Ray Lynn, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets and family in Doe Run.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman, of St. Louis, arrived here Monday and took her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robb Chapman, to the city to be operated on for cancer.

Misses Lena and Emma Karsch returned to St. Louis yesterday to continue their hospital work, in which they have been engaged for some time.

The splendid weather, consisting of warm days and cool nights, continue to run true to form. It is just the kind of weather that is needed to mature crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Girard Dover and daughter, of Sikeston, visited Farmington friends the first of the week. They left Wednesday in their car for Cape Girardeau.

M. L. Doughty and son, John, and wife, who arrived here last Friday with the remains of Mrs. M. L. Doughty, are still visiting relatives and many old friends in this community. The many acts of loving kindness and tender thoughtfulness performed by friends on their sad mission were served as a reminder to those former citizens that old friends are the best friends one accumulates in this life.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheets and children, Miss Ruth and Ray Lynn, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets and family in Doe Run.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman, of St. Louis, arrived here Monday and took her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robb Chapman, to the city to be operated on for cancer.

Misses Lena and Emma Karsch returned to St. Louis yesterday to continue their hospital work, in which they have been engaged for some time.

The splendid weather, consisting of warm days and cool nights, continue to run true to form. It is just the kind of weather that is needed to mature crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Girard Dover and daughter, of Sikeston, visited Farmington friends the first of the week. They left Wednesday in their car for Cape Girardeau.

M. L. Doughty and son, John, and wife, who arrived here last Friday with the remains of Mrs. M. L. Doughty, are still visiting relatives and many old friends in this community. The many acts of loving kindness and tender thoughtfulness performed by friends on their sad mission were served as a reminder to those former citizens that old friends are the best friends one accumulates in this life.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheets and children, Miss Ruth and Ray Lynn, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets and family in Doe Run.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman, of St. Louis, arrived here Monday and took her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robb Chapman, to the city to be operated on for cancer.

Misses Lena and Emma Karsch returned to St. Louis yesterday to continue their hospital work, in which they have been engaged for some time.

The splendid weather, consisting of warm days and cool nights, continue to run true to form. It is just the kind of weather that is needed to mature crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Girard Dover and daughter, of Sikeston, visited Farmington friends the first of the week. They left Wednesday in their car for Cape Girardeau.

M. L. Doughty and son, John, and wife, who arrived here last Friday with the remains of Mrs. M. L. Doughty, are still visiting relatives and many old friends in this community. The many acts of loving kindness and tender thoughtfulness performed by friends on their sad mission were served as a reminder to those former citizens that old friends are the best friends one accumulates in this life.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheets and children, Miss Ruth and Ray Lynn, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets and family in Doe Run.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman, of St. Louis, arrived here Monday and took her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robb Chapman, to the city to be operated on for cancer.

Misses Lena and Emma Karsch returned to St. Louis yesterday to continue their hospital work, in which they have been engaged for some time.

The splendid weather, consisting of warm days and cool nights, continue to run true to form. It is just the kind of weather that is needed to mature crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Girard Dover and daughter, of Sikeston, visited Farmington friends the first of the week. They left Wednesday in their car for Cape Girardeau.

M. L. Doughty and son, John, and wife, who arrived here last Friday with the remains of Mrs. M. L. Doughty, are still visiting relatives and many old friends in this community. The many acts of loving kindness and tender thoughtfulness performed by friends on their sad mission were served as a reminder to those former citizens that old friends are the best friends one accumulates in this life.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheets and children, Miss Ruth and Ray Lynn, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets and family in Doe Run.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman, of St. Louis, arrived here Monday and took her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robb Chapman, to the city to be operated on for cancer.

Misses Lena and Emma Karsch returned to St. Louis yesterday to continue their hospital work, in which they have been engaged for some time.

The splendid weather, consisting of warm days and cool nights, continue to run true to form. It is just the kind of weather that is needed to mature crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Girard Dover and daughter, of Sikeston, visited Farmington friends the first of the week. They left Wednesday in their car for Cape Girardeau.

M. L. Doughty and son, John, and wife, who arrived here last Friday with the remains of Mrs. M. L. Doughty, are still visiting relatives and many old friends in this community. The many acts of loving kindness and tender thoughtfulness performed by friends on their sad mission were served as a reminder to those former citizens that old friends are the best friends one accumulates in this life.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheets and children, Miss Ruth and Ray Lynn, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sheets and family in Doe Run.

Mrs. Geo. Chapman, of St. Louis, arrived here Monday and took her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robb Chapman, to the city to be operated on for cancer.

Misses Lena and Emma Karsch returned to St. Louis yesterday to continue their hospital work, in which they have been engaged for some time.

The splendid weather, consisting of warm days and cool nights, continue to run true to form. It is just the kind of weather that is needed to mature crops.

KENNEDY-SUMPTER

Capt. W. A. Kennedy, of this city, and Mrs. Mary Sumpter, of Oakland, Calif., were united in Marriage at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Sept. 18th, in the parlors of the Marquette Hotel in St. Louis, Rev. Dr. Reed, president of Westminster College, performing the ceremony. The daughter and son-in-law of Dr. Reed were present as witnesses.

Marriage was the happy consummation of many years of friendship of the contracting parties. The groom is well known to all our people as a splendid citizen and successful real estate dealer. The bride is a worthy and estimable lady, and The Times hopes and believes that she will find her future home in this city most pleasant and enjoyable.

The newly-weds arrived here Monday evening and went at once to Capt. Kennedy's home, near the electric depot, which had previously been prepared for his bride. The Times joins with many friends in wishing Capt. and Mrs. Kennedy all the pleasure and happiness that goes with a happy marriage.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this community at an early age, where she had since lived. She was a true and conscientious Christian, and had for many years devoted much of her time in Christian work, especially in rendering to the poor and needy true service, that will live for years to come in the hearts of those who have profited by her beneficence.

This good woman will be sorely missed in the community where she spent many active and useful years of her life. While she was always unselfish and unobtrusive, she was apparently tireless in her good works. Many sorrowing friends extend to the sorely bereaved father and daughter heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but services will perhaps be held at the M. E. Church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery.

Decedent was born in Indiana on Sept. 15, 1852, but removed to this